

These three bound volumes hold the American Association of Pathologists' Assistants Quarterly Newsletter, from the first in 1974 through Winter 2005. Enjoy this opportunity to observe the evolution of the AAPA through the lens of the newsletters.

Volume 1 contains the very first AAPA Newsletters. Please handle gently.

Recommended reading, Volume 1

August 1974, Vol 1 No 1-The first AAPA Newsletter

February 1976, Vol 2 No 1-First Annual Convention writeup

December 1979 Vol 6 No 4-First CME quiz

March 1983 Vol 10 No 1-"Acquired Immunodeficiency Syndrome" by Michael Sheehy, PA and "Special Interest-Hepatitis B Vaccine" by Jeff Watterson, PA

December 1983 Vol 10 No 4-"The Training of Pathologists' Assistants Exhibit at the Fall ASCP/CAP Meeting October, 1983" by R.A. Neri, President

March 1984 Vol 11 No 1 (p1-2)-"An Urgent Need for Pituitary Glands" by Ray Schneider, PA

June 1985 Vol 22 No 2 (p1-2)-"The Autopsy: Why the Decrease? Is it Important?" by Roy N Barnett, MD

September 1987 Vol 16 No 3(p1-3)-"When Should Patients Perform Their Own Laboratory Tests?" by Roy N Barnett, MD. Article discussing at-home laboratory testing, including the recent "introduction of do-it-yourself pregnancy tests"